2.1. COMPLIANCE WITH THE POLICY

All employees shall comply with these Anti-Corruption Provisions, and strive to ensure that the employees of all third parties acting on SOCAR Turkey Group behalf such as contractors, or agents do likewise.

2.2. POLICY AGAINST BRIBERY

No employee or any other person or entity acting on behalf of SOCAR Turkey Group may, directly or indirectly, give or offer a bribe, kickback payment, improper benefit, or any other thing of value to a person with the intent of improperly gaining or retaining a business advantage or improperly rewarding the recipient or any other person for past conduct.

Employees also cannot request or accept anything of value from any third party in return for any improper advantage in relation to SOCAR Turkey Group's business and operations. Employees must make objective business decisions based on the merits and not because of inappropriate gifts or other benefits.

The term “anything of value” is broad. Any act can qualify to be bribery for so long that the recipient or a third party perceives the subject matter of the act to be something of value provided with an improper purpose.

Employees must not “overlook” or fail to report any actual, potential, or suspect corrupt conduct including bribery.

Anti-Corruption Laws apply particular sensitivity in the case of benefits or things of value provided to Public Officials or their family members. Employees who interact with Public Officials shall be aware of their actions, which may appear to be inducing a Public Official directly or indirectly, to (or not to) perform their duties to gain any improper advantage. If you are in doubt on how to proceed while conducting a business affair involving a Public Official and you are unable to find the necessary guidance you seek in the R&H Procedure annexed to this policy, you must immediately report to your line manager. If you think you are in a situation where you think this is neither possible nor helpful, please reach out to the Compliance Department directly, or make a report through the Hotline.

As per the Principles, SOCAR Turkey Group provides funding to corporate social responsibility activities only for bona fide charitable purposes.

The External Affairs Department is responsible for planning SOCAR Turkey Group's Corporate Social Responsibility activities. Working together with the Ethics Committee, the External Affairs Department prepares an annual plan ("Annual Corporate Social Responsibility Plan") regarding SOCAR Turkey Group's corporate social responsibility activities to reduce the risk of corruption and conflicts of interests as well as to maintain control over the appropriate use of SOCAR Turkey Group's funds. The preparation and approval of the Annual Corporate Social Responsibility Plan takes place in accordance with the SOCAR Turkey Corporate Social Responsibility Principles each year.

SOCAR Turkey Group processes and records each Corporate Social Responsibility activity through a standard "Corporate Social Responsibility Approval Form". The External Affairs Department is responsible for the initial preparation of this form. The form then goes through a streamlined approval process across the members of the Top Management including but not limited to the CEO, CFO, and COO as well as the Board of Directors if necessary, after the crosscheck of the Compliance Department and arrives at the Financial Control Directorate for final sign-off.

For further details on the rules and practices of the SOCAR Turkey Group applicable to corporate social responsibility, please review the SOCAR Turkey Corporate Social Responsibility Principles.

2.7. INTERNAL CONTROLS

SOCAR Turkey Group maintains adequate internal controls, in each relevant process across the organization, sufficient to implement this Policy and Code of Ethics, and monitor and record all actions explained herein.

SOCAR Turkey Group is committed to keeping its books and records in a manner that accurately reflects its transactions. This includes the accurate and timely recording of payments made to third parties into SOCAR Turkey Group's books, records, and accounts in reasonable detail. SOCAR Turkey Group strictly prohibits making false, misleading, incomplete, inaccurate or artificial entries in the SOCAR Turkey Group's books and records. To accommodate the information provided in the books and records, written contracts with Counterparties must accurately reflect the substance of the agreement. All employees must be diligent on providing accurate and complete information to the Internal Audit Department, independent and external auditors, committees, tax or any other type of governmental authorities. Please refer to relevant SOCAR Turkey Group policies and procedures on record keeping, internal audit and contract processes for further information on these matters.

2.8. RELATIONS WITH COUNTERPARTIES AND INTEGRITY DUE DILIGENCE

SOCAR Turkey Group values the importance of doing business with Counterparties which conduct their businesses ethically and with the highest level of integrity in a manner that is consistent with the Code of Ethics and thereby consistent with these Anti-Corruption Provisions. As defined in the Definitions Section above, Counterparties include, for example, customers, partners, agents, intermediaries, suppliers, consultants, advisors, parties to corporate transactions, and other third parties with whom SOCAR Turkey Group contracts. Many Anti-Corruption Laws cover indirect as well as direct bribery.

Therefore misconduct by SOCAR Turkey Group's Counterparties could expose SOCAR Turkey Group to reputational harm or civil and criminal liability. Employees are therefore responsible for the Counterparties that act on behalf of SOCAR Turkey Group. In parallel to this, SOCAR Turkey Group expects Employees to prevent from circumventing SOCAR Turkey Group policies and procedures by using a Counterparty to do what SOCAR Turkey Group could not lawfully do itself.

To ensure compliance with the foregoing standards, SOCAR Turkey Group conducts risk-based integrity due diligence on all Counterparties, as set forth in the CIDD Procedure.

2.9. GIFTS, MEALS, ENTERTAINMENT AND TRAVEL

Employees must not give or promise gifts, meals, entertainment, or travel to any third party to obtain an improper advantage for SOCAR Turkey Group in return. Employees must also exercise caution when accepting gifts, meals, entertainment, or travel for others as such behavior may create an impression of improper influence in our business relationships.

To ensure compliance with the foregoing standards, employees must comply at all times with the R&H Procedure.

SECTION III: TRADE CONTROLS PROVISIONS

3.1. RELEVANCE OF DOMESTIC REGULATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE CONTROLS TO SOCAR TURKEY GROUP BUSINESS

3.1.1. DOMESTIC REGULATIONS

As a group of companies incorporated and operating in the Republic of Turkey, SOCAR Turkey Group is subject to laws of the Republic of Turkey. Some of these laws require all entities to report if they encounter any transaction that may be related to money laundering and/or financing of terrorism. Failing to report when necessary may cause SOCAR Turkey Group to face charges with respect to commitment of these crimes itself.

3.1.2. INTERNATIONAL TRADE CONTROLS

SOCAR Turkey Group can also face restrictions under U.S. or EU sanctions and export controls. With regard to the U.S. sanctions, while SOCAR Turkey Group is not a “U.S. Person”, any of its U.S. national employees and any employees located in the United States, regardless of their nationality, are “U.S. Persons” and are themselves subject to the U.S. sanctions regulations. Moreover, non-“U.S. Persons” such as SOCAR Turkey Group are prohibited from “causing” “U.S. Persons” to violate the U.S. sanctions, such as potentially by dealing in U.S. Dollars in transactions that are prohibited under the U.S. sanctions, or by otherwise involving “U.S. Persons” in such transactions (such as suppliers or even, potentially, “U.S. Persons” who are employed by SOCAR Turkey Group in Turkey).

Both the U.S. and the E.U currently maintain a number of sanctions programs that prohibit, or significantly restrict, U.S. Persons/EU Persons from engaging in business in or with certain countries. These countries and the scope of these sanctions' programs differ significantly and may change from time to time. Thus, please REACH OUT to the Compliance Department when you think the transaction you are about to enter into may involve a sanctioned country or a sanction program. These sanctions regimes also prohibit actions intended to facilitate transactions which otherwise would be prohibited if performed by the relevant U.S./EU Persons. This includes even referring business to non-U.S./EU Persons that U.S./EU Persons would be prohibited from undertaking themselves.

The U.S., EU and other governments also maintain various lists of Designated Persons who for national security or foreign policy reasons are restricted from trading in export-controlled items and technology and/or from engaging in business transactions more broadly with their companies and nationals. In some cases, entities that are not identified on Designated Persons lists may still be deemed subject to the same restrictions as listed parties if they are majority-owned or controlled by one or more listed parties. Restrictions associated with Designated Persons can reach the activities of SOCAR Turkey Group in a number of circumstances such as, for instance, if SOCAR Turkey Group were to involve U.S. or EU persons in dealings with Designated Persons, or if it were to transact with Designated Persons in U.S. dollars, Euro, or other EU currencies. Dealings with certain Designated Persons can also expose SOCAR Turkey Group to certain sanctions.

Certain Designated Persons are sanctioned only for limited purposes those persons are referred to herein as Sectorally-Sanctioned Persons. Generally speaking, it is not prohibited for U.S. or EU Persons to deal with Sectorally-Sanctioned Persons, with the exception of certain forms of debt, equity, military sector, and oil and gas services transactions. In transacting with Sectorally-Sanctioned Parties, it is important for SOCAR Turkey Group to ensure that it complies with U.S. or EU sanctions to the extent the transactions involve any connection to the U.S. or EU (again, as an example, if the transactions are made in U.S. dollars, Euro, or other EU currencies, or if they otherwise involve U.S. or EU Persons). Given the various ways in which the U.S. and EU country-based sanctions programs could apply to the activities of SOCAR Turkey Group and its employees, it is important for SOCAR Turkey Group to monitor the potential application of those sanctions' programs to SOCAR Turkey Group's activities, and to ensure that SOCAR Turkey Group does not engage in activities that are prohibited or could trigger any sanctions.
